

Add current and relevant TV content into your lessons

TV is full of educationally-valuable content. ClickView TV helps educators enhance their lessons with current news, documentaries and programmes.

Be part of a community of educators

On the ClickView Exchange, over 18,000 of the best educational programmes from Freeview TV have been shared and made available to you to add to your lessons.

We're happy to remove all the adverts for you

Request ad-free versions of any programme from the last 30 days, including news and documentaries to dramas and talk shows.

Looking for an older BBC programme?

ClickView allows you to search and request content from the BBC RES archive, which contains all programmes aired on the BBC since 2007.
